

Summary

Each of the council's communities has active local communities that would be happy to welcome you. Life here combines powerful natural surroundings, endless open spaces, and active community life. The education system is among the strongest and most advanced in the country, offering a full support framework for families - social education until the afternoon hours, subsidized extracurricular activities, and excellence scholarships.

Main Opportunities

Advanced education system - small classes and innovative teaching | Social education until the evening hours | Subsidized extracurricular activities | Incentives and benefits for teachers | Cultural festivals

Local Assets

Warm and welcoming communities, advanced education system - small classes, innovative teaching, social education until the evening hours, many extracurricular activities with significant subsidies, unique high school tracks - "Bikurim," search and rescue, and MDA, and cultural festivals - the Tamar Festival, The Groove, and Har Amasa.

Future Plans

Development of neighborhoods in all council communities - Ein Gedi, Neot HaKikar, Ein Tamar, and Har Amasa, with the option of integration through either community-based absorption or agricultural absorption.

Services and Support

EdEducational and community initiatives, mentoring and coaching programs | Scholarships, incentives, and grants | Community, housing, and settlement services

Tax Benefit

7%–12% | Varies by community | Cap:
₪146,640

Travel Times to Medical Centers

Soroka Medical Center: 60–80 min. |
Planned Sheba Negev: 50–70 min.

Message to Physicians

Here you will find welcoming communities and warm integration - a place where everyone knows everyone. High-quality, advanced education, convenience for working parents, a strong and rich cultural life, and a high quality of life - ideal for raising children.

Contact Details

Shelly Sigaoker | Community Development
Manager | shellys@ma-tamar.co.il | 050-
9666539